13. ARBITRATION AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER

PLEASE READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY. IT AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS, INCLUDING YOUR RIGHT TO FILE A LAWSUIT IN COURT.

13a. Agreement to Arbitrate. You and Bloxley agree that these Terms affect interstate commerce and that the Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of these arbitration provisions. This Section 13 is intended to be interpreted broadly and governs any and all disputes between us including but not limited to claims arising out of or relating to any aspect of the relationship between us, whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation, or any other legal theory; claims that arose before these Terms or any prior agreement (including, but not limited to, claims related to advertising); and claims that may arise after the termination of these Terms. The only disputes excluded from this broad prohibition are the litigation of certain intellectual property and small court claims, as provided below.

13b. Dispute Resolution. Most disputes can be resolved without resort to arbitration. If you have any dispute with us, you agree that before taking any formal action, you will contact us at support@bloxely.com or by Certified Mail to 1000 N West Street, 12th floor, suite 1200 office 1240-51, Wilmington, Delaware, 19801. The dispute should contain a brief written description of the dispute and your contact information (including your username if your dispute relates to a Platform account). Except for intellectual property and small claims court claims, the parties agree to use their best efforts to settle any dispute, claim, question, or disagreement directly through consultation with Bloxley, and good faith negotiations shall be a condition to either party initiating a lawsuit or arbitration.

Sometimes the law, or our agreement with you, requires you to give us a written notice. You must still provide these notices to us on paper, unless we specifically tell you in another Communication how you may deliver that notice to us electronically.

We reserve the right, at our sole discretion, to discontinue the provision of electronic Communications, or to terminate or change the terms and conditions upon which electronic Communications are provided. We will provide you with notice of any such termination or change as required by law.

Method of Providing Communications in Electronic Form

All Communications that we provide in electronic form will be provided either (1) by e-mail or (2) by access to a website designated in an email notice from us, (3) through the any mobile application we may make available, (4) to the extent permitted by law, by access to a website generally designated in advance for such purpose, or (5) in the manner specified in any other agreement we or our affiliates have with you.

If you seek to obtain a new product, service or account with us, we may remind you that you have already consented to receiving electronic Communications and using electronic signatures in your relationship with us.

Continuing to use our Products after receiving updates to our system requirements signifies your acceptance of the change and reaffirmation of your consent.

Keeping your Records Current.

It is your responsibility to provide us with a true, accurate and complete e-mail address, street address, and other information related to this Consent and a Product, and to maintain and update promptly any changes in this information. You can update information (such as your e-mail address) by contacting us at support@bloxley.com. We are not responsible for any delay or failure in the receipt of the Communications if we send the Communications to the last e-mail address you provided to us.

System Requirements for Accessing Communications

In order to access, view, and retain electronic Communications that we make available, you must have:

- computers capable of running one of these compatible browsers:
 - Internet Explorer version 9.0 or higher.
 - Firefox version 35 or higher.
 - Safari version 6.1 or higher.
 - Chrome version 38 or higher.

Or

- an Apple iPhone or iPad running iOS version 9.0 or higher.
- access to an active e-mail account with an email service provider.

We may update these requirements as necessary to preserve the ability to receive electronic Communications. If there is a substantial change in these requirements, you will be notified as required by law.

13c. Binding Arbitration. If the parties do not reach an agreed-upon solution within a period of sixty (60) days from the time informal dispute resolution is initiated under the Dispute Resolution provision Section 13b, then either party may initiate binding arbitration as the sole means to resolve claims, (except as provided in the "Exception: Litigation of Intellectual Property and Small Claims Court Claims" subsection below) subject to the terms set forth in provision Section 13f. Specifically, all claims arising out of or relating to these Terms (including the Terms' formation, performance, and breach), the parties' relationship with each other, and/or your use of Bloxley shall be finally settled by binding arbitration. Regardless of the manner in which the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator will issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based.

13d. Class Action Waiver. The parties further agree that the arbitration shall be conducted in the party's respective individual capacities only and not as a class action or other representative action, and the parties expressly waive their right to file a class action or seek relief on a class basis. You and Bloxley agree that each may bring claims against the other only in your or our individual capacity, and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding. If any court or arbitrator determines that the class action waiver set forth in this paragraph is void or unenforceable for any reason or that an arbitration can proceed on a class basis, then the arbitration provisions set forth above shall be deemed null and void in their entirety and the parties shall be deemed to have not agreed to arbitrate disputes.

13e. Litigation of Intellectual Property and Small Claims Court Claims. Notwithstanding the parties' decision to resolve all disputes through arbitration, either party may bring enforcement actions, validity determinations, or claims arising from or relating to theft, piracy or unauthorized use of intellectual property in state or federal court or in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office to protect its intellectual property rights ("intellectual property rights" means patents, copyrights, moral rights, trademarks, and trade secrets, but not privacy or publicity rights). Either party may also seek relief in a small claims court for disputes or claims within the scope of that court's jurisdiction.

13f. Confidentiality. All aspects of the arbitration proceeding, and any ruling, decision, or award by the arbitrator will be strictly confidential for the benefit of all parties.

13g. Changes to this Section. Bloxley will provide thirty (30) days' notice of any changes to this section by posting on this Site. Amendments will become effective thirty (30) days after they are posted on this Site. Changes to this section will otherwise apply prospectively only to claims arising after the thirtieth (30th) day. If a court or arbitrator decides that this subsection on "Changes to This Section" is not enforceable or valid, then this subsection shall be severed from the section entitled "Arbitration and Class Action Waiver," and the court or arbitrator shall apply the first Arbitration and Class Action Waiver section in existence after you began using this Site.

13h. Survival. This Mandatory Arbitration and Class Action Waiver section shall survive any termination of your use of the Website.

14. ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER DISCLOSURE

The following disclosures are made in accordance with the federal law regarding electronic payments, deposits, transfers of funds and other electronic transfers. There may be limitations on your account or debit card that restrict your ability to make electronic fund transfers. Any such limits are disclosed in your customer account agreement.

"Automated credits" or "direct deposits" are deposits made to your Deposit Account by electronic means. "Automated debits" and "automated payments" indicate payments authorized by you to be made from your Deposit Account by electronic means. "Online Transfers" are the movement of funds between your Deposit Accounts by use of the Mobile App. Online Transfers are described in detail in the agreement governing the Deposit Account.

Requesting Paper Copies

We will not send paper copies of any Communication; however, we reserve the right, but assume no obligation, to provide a paper (instead of electronic) copy of any Communication that you have authorized us to provide electronically. You can obtain a paper copy of an electronic Communication by printing it or by requesting that we mail a paper copy. To request a paper copy, call us at +1 (302)345-7642 during normal business hours, except for national holidays. There may be a fee associated with the request for the delivery of paper copies of any Communication provided electronically pursuant to this Consent.

Communications in Writing

All Communications in either electronic or paper format from us to you will be considered "in writing." You should print or download a copy of this Consent and any other Communications for your records.

Withdrawing Your Consent

You can withdraw your consent to receive Communications electronically at any time. Your withdrawal of consent will become effective after we have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon it. To withdraw your consent to receive Communications electronically, you must contact us by e-mailing at support@bloxley.com

If you withdraw consent, your access to all Products will be terminated and any account you have with us will be closed and funds will be returned to you in accordance with the account agreement. If you withdraw consent, the legal validity and enforceability of prior Communications delivered in electronic form will not be affected.

- ï You may make cash withdrawals and POS purchases, not to exceed the established limits for your Deposit Account.

14c. Limitations on Transfers, Amounts and Frequency of Transactions

- ï You may make cash withdrawals and POS purchases, not to exceed the established limits for your Deposit Account.

- ï Statements. You will have access to an electronic monthly statement that can be viewed on the Website.
- ï Direct Deposits or Automated Credits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your Deposit Account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same person or company, please email or call us to find out if the deposit has been made.

14e. Right to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers. If you have told us in advance to make regular payment out of your Deposit Account, you can stop any of these payments. Here's how:

- ï To stop a recurring ACH transfer to a merchant you preauthorized to debit your Deposit Account, please contact the merchant to request cancellation of the recurring payment.

Your request to stop payment must be received at least three (3) business days before the payment is scheduled to be made. Such a stop payment request will cancel a single, i.e. one (1) recurring payment. If you want to permanently stop all recurring payments to a specific merchant, you may be required to put your request in writing and email it to support@bloxley.com within fourteen (14) days after you call. If we ask you to put your request in writing, you will need to tell us; the name of the payee, the dollar amount of the payment and the date of the payment. If your Debit Card, PIN or Deposit Account number has been lost or stolen, or someone has transferred or may transfer money from your Deposit Account without your permission, call or email us.

Under Visa U.S.A. Inc. Operating Regulations, your liability for unauthorized Visa debit transactions on your Deposit Account is $0.00 if you are not grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of your Debit Card. This reduced liability does not apply to certain commercial card transactions, transactions not processed by Visa or to ATM transactions outside the U.S. You must notify us immediately of any unauthorized use. If the Visa Zero Liability Rules do not apply, if you notify us within two (2) business days after you learn of any unauthorized transactions, you may be liable for no more than $50.00 if someone used your Deposit Account without your permission. If you do not notify us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Debit Card, Deposit Account number or PIN and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your Deposit Account without your permission if you had promptly notified us, you may be liable for as much as $500.00.

If you become aware of and/or your statement shows transactions that you did not make, notify us at once following the procedures stated in the section labeled "Information About Your Right to Dispute Errors". If you do not notify us within sixty (60) days after you become aware of the transaction(s) and/or the statement was made available to you, you may not get back any of the value you lost after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking value if you had notified us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods. If your Debit Card, PIN or Deposit Account number has been lost or stolen, we will close your Debit Card and/or Deposit Account to keep losses down and send you a replacement Debit Card and/or Deposit Account number.

If your Deposit Account changes you must immediately notify your employer or any other payors or merchants. You must provide them with your new Deposit Account number to ensure that your direct deposit and/or ACH Debit activity continues uninterrupted.

If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and you do not provide it within ten (10) business days, we may not credit your Deposit Account.

For errors involving new Deposit Accounts; transactions with a merchant's POS terminal, whether in-person, online, by telephone, mail, or otherwise; or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to ninety (90) days to investigate your complaint or question. For new Deposit Accounts, we may take up to twenty (20) business days to credit your Deposit Account for the amount you think is in error. We will send you the results within three (3) business days after completing the investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation.
